

4.5.1

4.5.1 - The repository shall specify minimum information requirements to enable the Designated Community to discover and identify material of interest.

The minimal descriptive metadata recommended by Merritt is the Dublin Kernel set: who (or creator), what (title), when (date), and where (identifier). If supplied, these metadata elements are automatically indexed in the Inventory micro-service and made available for search in the Merritt UI.

Version	Date last updated	Updated by
1	May 23, 2012	sla